CHAD JOHNSON, Executive Director

Chad will be talking to us about the new house planned for St. Joseph and will answer any questions about Habitat for Humanity. Chad joined the Central Minnesota Habitat for Humanity in June of 2021. He has more than ten years of Nonprofit experience and has deep local roots and a passion for Central Minnesota. Chad is excited to lead CMHFH into the future and serve as a Beacon of HOPE and STABILITY through providing SAFE, AFFORDABLE, and DECENT housing to those in need.

Chad grew up in St. Cloud, MN, and currently resides in St. Joseph, MN, with his wife (Jacki), and four children (Sophie, William, Charlotte, and Katie). In his free time, Chad enjoys spending time with his family, running, watching the Vikings, reading, listening to podcasts, and finishing up his MBA from St. Cloud State University.
