

Chamber News

From the President Adam Otteson

Dear Chamber members,

Spring is just around the corner as the days are getting longer and the sun is getting warmer. It won't be long and the snow and ice will all be melted away. Every spring starts new growth and reminds me to reset my personal goals for the summer.

It sounds like this year is expected to be another busy year in the real estate market. With interest rates staying low and limited options on the market it should be another crazy summer. If you are planning on doing any building or remolding this summer reach out to your contractors early. Their schedules are filling up fast.

Last month at our chamber event we got some updates on all things going on in "Joetown" from our Mayor, Rick Schultz. Thank you for keeping us informed on what is going on and a glimpse into what the future holds for St. Joseph.

One last reminder to sign up for our St. Joseph Chamber Community Showcase on April 18th if you have not done so already. Also look for more communication around the upcoming combined chamber event with Richmond and Cold Spring. It should be a great event to get to know some other members from the local area and promote your business.

Please join us for the next meeting at noon on March 11. Don't forget if you know of someone that would benefit from coming to our chamber meeting the first lunch is on the chamber if you let us know.

Adam Otteson, President St. Joseph Area Chamber of Commerce

There is Something I Forgot to Tell You...

After a week or two of care a new patient will often pull us aside. They go on to describe some aspect of their health that has improved. Only thing, it's not what prompted them to originally see us for care. This happens surprisingly often. They didn't mention their acid reflux, indigestion or some other condition during our initial visit. That's understandable. Many people think of chiropractic as something that only helps spinal conditions. Those who see chiropractic as only a treatment for headaches and back pain overlook something more significant. Namely the role that chiropractic may play in whole body health. Here's how:

- 1. Your nervous system controls and regulates every cell, tissue and organ.
- 2. The nervous system consists of your brain, spinal cord and all your nerves.
- 3. The most important parts of your nervous system are protected by bone.
- 4. The moving segments of your spinal column are vulnerable to misalignment.
- 5. Aberrant spinal biomechanics can affect nervous system communications.
- 6. Impaired nerve messages can produce problems peripheral to the spine.
- 7. As nervous system interferences are reduced, symptoms often resolve.

Which raises an important question. When is a stomach problem a stomach problem? And when is a stomach problem actually a nerve communication problem between the brain and stomach?

It's the brain that controls your stomach. Just as it controls your lungs, your knees and every other function of your body. It controls and regulates every bodily function via nerve messages sent over the spinal cord. Interference from the moving bones protecting these nerves could show up as a stomach problem. But the real problem is along the spinal column. Correct the spinal problem and the stomach problem often resolves.

Does that make chiropractic a treatment for stomach problems? Of course not. The intent of chiropractic care is to restore proper function to a compromised nervous system. Instead of 'side effects' the happy result is 'positive effects' that many patients notice as their care progresses.

St. Joseph

ABOUT YOU

I grew up around the Melrose area and lived there for most of my life. In July of 2019, my wife, Amy, and I sold our home in Melrose so we could be closer to our jobs and lessen our commutes. Amy and I have been married for 22 years. We have no kids or pets so we travel as much as we can. We usually opt for summer road trips in our Corvette rather than winter getaways. We love going to rock concerts, sporting events and visiting breweries.

If you didn't have to sleep, what would you do with the extra time? Learn to play Piano or Guitar. I sang in a garage band when I was a lot younger but never learned an instrument. I think that would be a lot of fun.

Joe Prodinsky, BankVista

What things don't you like to do? I enjoy cooking, baking, grilling/smoking but I'm not a fan of the clean-up. Amy and I make a great team!

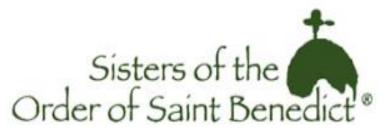

ABOUT YOUR BUSINESS

When people come to you for help, what do they usually want?

I help people reach their goals. Sometimes it's major expenses like a home or a car. Other times it's saving money for the future. Occasionally it's just listening and giving advice. The most rewarding part of my job is helping people reach their goals whether they're my customers or my staff.

What is the biggest business challenge you are facing today? Protecting customers from fraud. There are a lot of scammers out there and they always seem to find someone that will fall for their schemes. I always tell people to trust their instincts and question everything.

What was the best business compliment you received? I had a customer tell me that I had given the best customer service he'd ever received. Just listening and treating people the way you'd like to be treated goes a long way.

Spiritual R & R Day Thursday, April 16, 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. "Come away and rest awhile" (Mark 6:31). Throughout the Gospels, Jesus encourages his disciples to take time away to let their souls catch up with their bodies. The Spiritual R & R Day offers time for quiet prayer, reflection, reading, walking, resting and meeting with a spiritual director, if desired. Group prayer begins and ends the day. Noon Prayer with the sisters at the Oratory and noon meal with the sisters at the monastery are also options. https://sbm.osb.org/event/spiritual-r-r-day-4/

Being, Belonging, Becoming in Our Benedictine Community Saturday, April 18, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. We believe in our Benedictine community, and we invite single Catholic woman under the age of 45 to learn about our way of life as Benedictine sisters! You will learn the history of our community and sacred spaces, attend Eucharist with the community and share a meal in our dining room.

There will be an opportunity for continued conversations with sisters after lunch. To register, please contact Sister Lisa Rose, director of vocations, at lrose@csbsju.edu or (320) 363-7180. https://sbm.osb.org/event/being-belonging-becoming-in-our-benedictine-community-3-2/

March is Brain Injury Awareness Month

Brain injury is unpredictable in its consequences. Brain injury affects who we are and the way we think, act, and feel. It can change everything about us in a matter of seconds. The most important things to remember are:

- A person with a brain injury is a person first.
- No two brain injuries are exactly the same.
- The effects of a brain injury are complex and vary greatly from person to person.
- The effects of a brain injury depend on factors such as cause, location, and severity.
 - ♦ An acquired brain injury (ABI) is an injury to the brain that is not hereditary, congenital, degenerative, or induced by birth trauma. Essentially, this type of brain injury is one that has occurred after birth. The injury results in a change to the brain's neuronal activity, which affects the physical integrity, metabolic activity, or functional ability of nerve cells in the brain.
 - There are two types of acquired brain injury: traumatic and non-traumatic.
 - A traumatic brain injury (TBI) is defined as an alteration in brain function, or other evidence of brain pathology, caused by an external force. Traumatic impact injuries can be defined as closed (or non-penetrating) or open (penetrating).
 - ♦ A non-traumatic brain injury is an alteration in brain function or pathology caused by an internal force.
 - -Information provided by Brain Injury Association of America

WHAT TO DO IF YOU SUFFER A BRAIN INJURY?

Rehabilitation Therapies. Therapies can help someone with TBI relearn skills such as walking or cooking, or develop strategies for self-care, such as making lists of the steps involved in getting dressed. Rehabilitation can include several different kinds of therapy for physical, emotional, and cognitive difficulties.

If you or you know someone that has suffered a Brain Injury, SPOT Rehabilitation and Home Care can assist with bringing you back to your desired SPOT. SPOT Rehabilitation and Home Care, 320.259-4151. WWW.SPOT-REHAB.COM.
